

Cottage Program

Eligibility and Application Process

The purpose of Catalyst's Cottage Program is to provide transitional housing and supportive services for 12 to 18 months to survivors of intimate partner violence. The length of stay is based on the time frame needed to achieve goals that will lead to self-sufficiency. Catalyst defines self-sufficiency as being able to pay for housing-related expenses necessary to remain in permanent housing after transitioning out of the Cottage Program.

Eligible candidates for the Cottage Program must meet the following requirements:

- Resident of Butte County for at least the last six months
- Currently employed, currently enrolled in an educational/training program, or currently receiving disability income. If receiving disability income:
 - Seeking employment and can demonstrate employability through employment in the past year, and/or relevant education or training and/or
 - Working with the Department of Rehabilitation
- Ability to identify goals that will lead to financial self-sufficiency within 12-18 months and that will contribute to physical and emotional well-being.
- Ability to pay monthly associated fees with living in the Cottage Program (20% of income: Cottage fees that cover rent and utilities, 20% of income: savings that will be returned upon leaving the Cottage Program)
- Ability to follow Cottage Program Agreements

Eligible candidates for the Cottage Program must provide an application packet with the following information:

(Please note: Incomplete application packets will not be considered by the Housing Program Manager)

- Child Care Plan
- Copy of Registration and Insurance paperwork for all vehicles that will be parked on Catalyst property

The Cottage Program consists of two different unit sizes: a two bedroom/one bathroom unit and a three bedroom/two bathroom unit. Announcements will be made for the unit type available during each open application process. Catalyst will use the following guidelines in determining the appropriate unit size for an individual or family:

Unit Size	Persons in Household: (minimum #)	Persons in Household: (maximum #)
2 bedrooms/1bathroom	1	5
3 bedrooms/2 bathrooms	3	7

Applications are to be turned in to Catalyst’s drop in offices:

- 330 Wall St. Suite 50, Chico, CA
- 1931 Arlin Rhine Dr. Oroville, CA
- Or mail: Attn: Carolina Cruz P.O. Box 4184, Chico, CA 95927

When dropping off application in person, please call the drop in office to coordinate contactless submission of packet.

Applications will only be accepted if complete. When completed applications are received, they will be reviewed after the application deadline for eligibility. Applicants that meet eligibility requirements will be contacted within two weeks of the application deadline to schedule an interview. We have virtual and in-person, physically-distant interview options depending on your availability and comfort level. A Cottage Interview Panel will make the final determination about acceptance into the Cottage Program and could be made up of the following members:

- Housing Program Manager
- Housing Program Advocate
- Non-housing Catalyst staff member
- Other Catalyst staff member as needed

Catalyst will not maintain a waiting list for the Cottage Program. A new application process will open each time there is a unit available.
